DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 8-31-2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

1. The applicant argues that the prior art does not teach a "profile" (eg. they only teach thresholds). The examiner must give the broadest reasonable interpretation to all claims presented. As such, the applicant's claim limitation "acceleration profile" can be broadly interpreted as being just a threshold (eg. the examiner is giving little weight to the term "profile". Thus it can be a stored threshold and/or a more elaborate scheme as argued by the applicant.

The examiner therefore invites the applicant to amend their claims such that the term "acceleration profile" is better defined and therefore cannot be broadly interpreted.

2. The examiner believes that a more favorable outcome may occur if the applicant were to amend claim 1 as follows:

- > Claim 1 + Claim 2 + (any one claim from claims 5 thru 11)

- o Note that claims 5 and 6 will also require intervening claim 3 as well.

3. After further review, the examiner now believes claims 5-6 and 15-16 to contain novel material as well.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
